Common Component Standards Proposal

Date   _____

Spec Title   _____

Author   _____

Status   Select one: New | Revised | Supersedes

Version   _____

Executive Summary

This document contains a proposal to the Common Component Standards (CCS) Steering Committee to form a new project team whose goal it is to produce a specification for _____to define _____.

 The following sections of the document describe in general terms what the component is, the benefits it provides to application developers, and what the team's deliverables would be.

Component Description

Explain the purpose and architecture of the component.

Benefits and Use Cases

Explain the benefits and expected use cases for the component.

Related / Dependent Common Component Specifications

List all related and dependent specifications. Specifications can be submitted and worked on simultaneously.

Project Team Requirements

List the expected timeframe and deliverables of the project team for this specification project.